SATURDAY 12 AUGUST

Vivaldi se Vier Seisoene herbesoek

With Petrus de Beer (violin), Stanislav Angelov (accordion) and Schalk Joubert (bass and recitation) Producer Petrus de Beer

Vivaldi composed his Four Seasons for string orchestra in 1723. This timeless masterpiece was published with four poems and it is believed that Vivaldi wrote the verses himself. Now these three musicians have reworked this piece by Vivaldi in a unique way, without assistance from an orchestra. The sonnet that was specially translated from Italian to Afrikaans by Dr Dawid de Villiers, is recited by Joubert and binds the four musical seasons together. Journey through the seasons with word and music.

SUNDAY 13 AUGUST

Spieël-dans in die maanlig

With Jana van der Walt (harp) and Rina Schutte (cello)

Enjoy the sounds of two instrumental favourites: harp and cello. With Bach's well-known Arioso from the baroque period and the romantic melodies of Gounod's Ave Maria. This is followed by music from the artists' favourite composers: Debussy and Pärt. Clair de Lune literally means light of the moon and is inspired by, and named after, a poem by Paul Verlaine. It is a powerful work that will sweep the audience away. Spiegel im Spiegel by Arvo Pärt has the same impact, but with a minimalistic approach for a musical work, filled with meaning. The music is calm, sentimental, timeless and incorporates silence. The programme ends with Hallelujah, Starry Starry Night and The Nightingale, all three songs reflecting back to significant creatives.

Beethoven Tango

With Zanta Hofmeyr (violin) and Charl du Plessis (piano)

Beethoven Tango appeals to an inquisitive musical palate and combines the refined qualities of Hofmeyr's classical technique with the improvisatory magic of contemporary piano. As the name suggests, Beethoven Tango is a unique musical journey joining the fire of tango rhythms and the sounds of world music, jazz and Beethoven, with hits like An Englishman in New York, Fragile, Libertango, Fields of Gold and Errol Garner's Misty amongst others. Look forward to a unique stylistic interpretation of well-known works, utilising the energy of fresh, new arrangements by Du Plessis. The first collaboration of Hofmeyr and Steinway Artist Du Plessis was in 2011, culminating in nation-wide tours and a critically acclaimed album, Beethoven Tango. As established violinist and graduate of the Julliard School of Music, Hofmeyr has recorded five CD's and has a rose named after her.
